MOURNING THE PASSING OF FORMER ATLANTA MAYOR MAYNARD H. JACKSON

(Mr. BISHOP of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep regret that I must announce that this morning Maynard Holbrook Jackson, former Mayor of the City of Atlanta, a very prominent American, passed away. He was a great Georgian, a great American, and we will mourn his loss. Shakespeare wrote, "All the world's a stage and all the men and women many players. Each has its entrance and its exit. One man in his time may play many parts."

So it is with Maynard Jackson. Born in Texas, spending most of his life in Georgia, a lawyer, a father, a mayor extraordinaire, founder of the Georgia Association of Black Elected Officials, a very, very important historic figure in political annals for African Americans and for Americans.

It is with deep regret that we mourn his passing. We will on tomorrow night
